Did your student take time to review the Undergraduate Catalog? In addition to working with an Academic Advisor, the catalog provides a great overview of course requirements based on major.

Have you and your student discussed the best modality for their spring courses? This will help them select the most appropriate classes based on where they will be residing in spring.

Remind your student to mark their calendar for their specific enrollment appointment date and time. myScheduleBuilder can help them plan their schedule prior to enrollment.

Your student may be waitlisted for their courses. Here is more information to share with your student about that process.

Finally, bookmark UCF's Academic Calendar for important dates.
